

Increase Your Value Chain in NAAC Accreditation

Background

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) evaluates Higher Education Institutions for their conformance to standards of quality in terms of their performance related to:

- Educational processes and outcomes,
- Curriculum coverage, teaching-learning processes,
- Faculty, research, infrastructure, learning resources,
- Organisation, governance, financial well-being and student services.

Why Collaborate with PAF?

Public Affairs Foundation (PAF)'s work aligns with the NAAC's mission of undertaking quality-related research studies, consultancy and training programmes and collaborating with other stakeholders of higher education for quality evaluation, promotion and sustenance.

Why Should PAF be a Knowledge Partner in this Journey with you?

- You have been accredited by NAAC and would like to enhance your accredited status
- Want to volunteer for re-assessment after a minimum of one year or before three years of accreditation
- Apply for accreditation.

How can PAF support you?

- Develop a manual for procedures and methodology including a manual for the Assessment and Accreditation
- Identify specific responses based on the recommendations made by the peer team in the previous assessment and accreditation report
- Improve specific quality suggested by NAAC in the intervening period.

Key Areas for Collaboration

NAAC has specific criteria and key indicators for the assessment. PAF can contribute and help colleges to achieve the same.

Research, Innovation and Extension

- Promote and enhance the importance of research using its Research tools and expertise
- Identify resource mobilisation for research.

Governance, Leadership and Management

- Conduct customised capacity building training programmes for faculty and administrative staff
- Develop and enhance leadership skills and management
- Design, develop and deploy strategies and processes for standardisation.

Institutional Values and Best Practices

- Ensure through processes that all staff adhere to ethics and best practices
- Co-create knowledge for the same
- Ensure and establish periodic interactive sessions to revisit ethics established by the institution
- Organise data and documentation processes.
